Note on hands

The body of the list, at least, is in Spenser's secretary hand, here somewhat rushed and loose. The heading (i.e. lines 1-2), in a rough italic, may be Spenser's. The endorsement appears also to be in Spenser's italic hand (somewhat neater than in the internal heading).

• 3 Lord] The 'L' of this word is written over an initial 'll', suggesting that Spenser originally intended to write 'lords'.
