Note on hands

The text and heading of this letter appear to be written in a fluent version of the familiar Spenserian secretary hand. The first and third parts of the endorsement ('Sir Hugh Orelie' and '3 september') are apparently in Spenser's mixed hand; the second part of the endorsement is in a different secretary hand, small, spidery and quite cursive.

^{* 4} desyring me desyring me] a clear case of reduplication, a common scribal error.
