NA (PRO) SP 63/80/32

Grey to Walsingham, 27 January 1580/1

Address and Endorsements

{27} Ianuarye 158{0}From the Lord Graye

E.*

To the Honorable my very good Frend Sir fraunces Walsingham Knight Chief Secretary vnto her Maiestie

{Sec.} Wallsingham/

Text

	Sir the Contrarye wynde seeminge to staye my Lettres sent by Mr Markham Longe from you, and the delaye of my^* appointed Iorney therein mencioned against Tyrloughe Lennough haue caused mee to write thus muche to you nowe,/ For touchinge my determynacion to haue mett with Tyrloughe,	5
	since that tyme I haue bene aduertised that as yet hee lyeth hath changed his $w{\ldots}^*$	still in his owne Cuntrey but contynuinge to encrease his against Tirelaghe.	forcies with a greater nomber of Scottes. Meaninge as it is thoughte in the next Moue to attempte somewhat vppon
	the borders, and in like sorte I Contynue my former meaninge	10
	to encounter with him if once hee sett foote ouer the blacke

	Water. / In the meane tyme (because I will not Lye Idle) on mondaye next godwillinge) I am determyned to make a Iorney into Lexe and offaley, there to suppresse the
is gone into Leix and offaley	Rowtes of the Mores, and O [*] Conors who daylie assemble them selves in greater nombers and haue Committed sundrye Spoyles. /	15
Baltinglas weary of his rebellion.	Balthinglas and Feawghe, beinge nowe pynched with the wynter and restrayned from theire libertie to spoile by reason of the Bandes placed in garrison about them fall to showes to bee wearie of that they haue begonne, And as it seemeth woulde willinglye seeke peace if they	20
thinketh it not hono rable for hir maiestie to receaue him to fauor. hopes shortly to finish the rebellion if Tirlough lett him not.	knewe what waye to begynne that it mighte not be re{fused.} [*] Howbeeit I doe not thincke it either honorable for her Maiestie or seeminge for the state, to admitt any Condicion, but rather to persecute them withall Rigour and extremytie, And I dowbte not in god but before Easter daye, to make dispatch of the whole Rable of them here in the Pale, if I bee not ympeached by followinge the service vppon Tirloughe whose onlye endevour and practise as it seemeth, is to supporte all the Traytours here, they now havinge no other Comforte or hope of ayde but hym alone, and his Scottes	25 30
thinketh the matters of the Earl of Kildare will fall out harder then his lady accompteth	In the writinge hereof I receyved your Lettre of the xv th of this Moneth therein first signifyinge the greate [*] confidence the Countesse hathe in my Lord her husbandes Innocencye, as by her lettre sent mee from you by Mr Fenton more at large appeareth, but I feare the same will fall owt more dowbtefull a greate deale then yett shee accompteth of. /	35

{M}r francis Walsingham*

is glad that course {	For your good lykinge of thorder and Course in the Earle	40
	his Committment, I woulde nothinge haue dowbted thanswereing{e}
}*	of it (if reason mighte haue bene harde) in case it had beene
	my sole acte, Nevertheles I truste not so muche to my owne Iudgement, And the Course therein taken lyketh mee
	nowe the more that it pleaseth you to allowe thereof. /	45
is of opinion that Scotland	Touchinge your opynion that Forcies of Scottes will be
is a dealer in this rebel	sent from Scottland into the Northe of this Realme, lion	In my lettre sent by Mr Markham I haue signifyed, howe it is in [*] manner paste dowbte that the kinge of Scottes will bee an assistant to the trooble of this State, and therfore	50
	it requyreth no small Consideracion of theire Lordships with presente order to bee taken for the preventinge thereof./
	And touchinge your advice in callinge on theire Lordships for hath followed myne ad	Barkes and Pynassies so to bee employed, and for our uise in calling for	opynions and resolucion in Captein Piers his plott,	55
{p}ynasses to keepe the	for the better furtheraunce thereof I haue herewith
North sea.	retourned the saide offers of Captein Piers and our opynions therein. And so with righte hartie Comendacions I ceasse to trooble you. Dublin this xxvij th of Ianuarie 1580
	Yowres euer most assured,	60

Arthur Grey

Note on hands

The text of this letter is written in a compact secretary hand (not Spenser's), and is annotated, apparently, by Walsingham (note the first-person pronoun in one of the annotations). The subscription and signature are in Grey's own hand. The address is in Spenser's familiar secretary hand, and the endorsement – presumably added later, during filing of the letter in London – is in a small-bodied secretary. The third note ('Sec. Walls.') is an 'addressee note' in Grey's hand; these notes were added by Grey, or in some cases the secretary responsible for drafting the text of the letter, to advise Spenser to whom the letter should be addressed upon dispatch. A similar addressee note appears at the bottom of the first page, probably in the hand of the secretary who drafted the text of the letter; Grey seems not to have noticed this note when he added his own.

* Endorsement E.] probably an abbreviation for 'Entred', a note often made against the endorsements during the filing process.

* 2 of my] a flourishing line filler completes this line.

* Annotation w{.....}] the rest of this word is illegibile.

- * 15 O] 'O' inserted above the line, with a caret mark.
- * 23 re{fused.}] the right hand side of the page is damaged at this point.
- * 34 greate] a flourishing line filler is used here.
- * Annotation {M}r francis Walsingham] as noted in the 'note on hands', this is an addressee note.
- * Annotation course {.....}] this three-line marginal annotation is illegibile.

* 49 in] 'in' inserted above the line, with caret mark.

The transcription of this text is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial Non-Derivative 3.0 License (see http://creativecommons.org/). You are free to download this transcription, but may not use it for commercial purposes, and must attribute the transcription to the authors, Christopher Burlinson and Andrew Zurcher, and to 'Hap Hazard: A Manuscript Resource for Spenser Studies' <http://www.english.cam.ac.uk/ceres/haphazard>. Permission to reproduce or adapt the manuscript originals, where necessary, should be sought from the manuscript-holder.