Item that he shall not have nor enterteigne any Scottes nor other straunge forces hereafter withowt the Lord Deputies or the said Sir Nicholas license and consent: & shall presently banish & expell out of his countrey all such Scottes as bee nowe remayning within the same and suffer none to come to him self or any vnder him at any tyme hereafter . /

In consideracion whereof the said Sir Nicholas Malbey is pleased and content to nominate and give vnto the said Richard the name of mac William Ewghter & to give him the stile prehemins and title of mac William by her Maiesties Authoritie & will procure her Maiesties lettres Patentis vnto him of the same with the profittes rentes revenues & lorships to the same belonging as the aboue named Iohn mac Oliuerus Burke had yt before him . /

Item that the Lord Deputie shall perfect vnto the said mac William an Indenture in her Maiesties behalf of all such priveleges & grauntes which was given vnto the said Iohn mac Oliuerus to bee past and graunted vnto him in his owne name as it was the said Iohn, and that the Lord Deputie & the said Sir Nicholas Malbey & all otheres her Maiesties Officeres and ministeres shall observe and performe the contentes of the same towardes him in like maner.

Item that the said mac William shall pay vnto the said Sir Nicholas the fine agreed vpon betwixt them for his nominacion before the xijth of Aprill ether in ready money or good in calf kyne, as yt was determined & agreed by the said mac William before the Lord Archebishop of Tuame, the Lord Bretingham Teig mac William Okelly Riccard
