Text

My verie good Lorde, By the lettres whiche I haue presently sente vnto my Lords your Lordship maye perceive what order is taken here with Tirloughe for keepinge of the peace in the Northerne Borders, and withall vppon howe greate incertentye the same dependeth. 5
Whereof when as your Lordship shall haue entred into Consideracion, I doubte not but you will easelye conceyve howe necessarye my former mocion was for sendinge over of greater strength for the finall prosecutinge of him, Who euer standinge vppon suche vncerteyne termes, beside the present bouldnesse which hee geveth vnto the other Traytours of these partes and Contynuall disturbaunce of all this governement, maye by his daylie bringinge in of Scottes & forreyne powre offer some daunger vnto this whole estate. The which leavinge 10 to bee further weighed of your Lordship I am to crave your furtheraunce vnto her Maiestie for the full resolucion of all this Cause, and also for further supplye of money, which here groweth verye lowe, and for 15 encrease of victuell especialy of wheate and maulte to bee sente to Lymericke and to Dublin whence most of the Garrysons bothe of the Pale and of Mounster are victelld; Wherein I desire your Lordship to geve speciall charge vnto the Transporters thereof whose maner is beinge directed for Lymericke, to laye the same in at Corke excusinge their 20 Defaulte either by Contraryetie of Wyndes, or Lekage, or some suche misadventure, whereby greate trooble and encombraunce after groweth for Conveyinge of the same to the Garrysons at the Dingley and ells whether. So havinge not more to aduertize vnto your Lordship at this tyme of any late newes here happened I Committe you vnto 25

the government of the Almightye./ Dublin the xiiijth of Marche 1580. /

Yowr Lordships most assured to commaunde,

Note on hands

The text of this letter is written in a compact and regular secretary hand (not Spenser's). Grey has added the subscription and his distinctive signature in his own italic. Spenser's secretary hand appears in the address. The endorsement, probably added during filing in London, is in a cramped italic.
