Address and Endorsement

To the right Honorable my {especiall}’ good Frend Sir fraunces Walsingham Knight
Chief Secretary
to her Maiesty.

22 June 1582
The Lord Deputye.

Text

Sir vpon my returne hyther; I entered into consultation of my Lord of Clarricardes cause wherin sum difficulltie roaze beetwyxt the folow-wyng of the last article of yowr late memorialls & the seruys expected by hym to bee perfourmed in eyther reclaymyng or suppressing of hys wicked chyllderne, as more at lardge by owre letters now to the table there wyll delyuer yow, Which is the chieffiest cause of this prezent dispatche, earnestly prayeng yow* too procure speedie awnsswer therof not onely of that that concerns the said Earl but towchynge the Countess of Dessm{ond}* allso. And so not least thowghe last commending vnto yow the lyke procuring of my repayre ouer according too yowr former deuyzed platt, wherin my no small lyking & hoape remaynes, I take leaue for this tyme beeseetchyng the Allmyghtie too Keepe & pross= per yow euer./ Dublin the xxjth of Iune.

I haue sent ouer this bearar Yowrs moast assured euer:
my seruant for sollicityng of my causies there I praye yow affoure hym access & creditt as the same shall requyre./

Arthur Grey

25
Note on hands
The text of this letter, including the subscription, is in Grey's usual hand; Grey has added his customary autograph signature. The address is in Spenser's characteristic secretary hand, and the endorsement, presumably added later during the filing process in London, is in a distinct hand. The 'addressee note' at the foot of the page is probably in Grey's hand; these notes were added by Grey, or by the secretary drafting the text of the letter, to remind the secretary sealing the letter to whom it should be addressed.

* Address [especiall] some parts of this word are obscured by damage across one of the folds of the letter; the word and its spelling, however, are clear from the consistency of Spenser's addresses across the letters from Grey to Walsingham.
* 10 yow 'yow' inserted above the line with a caret mark.
* 12 Dessm[ond] damage to the right side of the manuscript has effaced these characters, if indeed Grey did not abbreviate the name 'Dessm.'. In either case, the intention is clear.
* 27 {m} cropping of the left side of the manuscript and/or the binding process has obscured part of the 'm' here.