Text

My very good Lord; I fynde the wheate store at Corck to bee vtterly now spent so as neyther grayne of Corne nor bitt of oother vittayle remaynethe, & that the gar-rizon therabowtes is therby in no small penurie;
I earnestly praye your Lordship that care for speedie supplie 5 maye bee had in it, ootherwyze the exigent wyll pass owre healpes heere; I wysshe ••* the shyppes that shall bryng the proportion for those partes too bee directed hencefourthe too Yowghall & not too Corck, the staple there fityng farre better the gar- 10 risoones turne. Throwghe the greate defallckments & allowancies there of oald dewes heere, I perceau scarce 3000^{li} of the last threazure allotted hyther wyll coome vntoo vs; wherof the necessarie paym= ents heere for corne & beeuës taken vp for the seruyce 15 awnsseed, not 2000^{li} wyll rest for the Captaynes & soldiores shares; beesydes my sellf & oother chieff officers whow withowte mooney can not shyft it owte heere:
what that sum amongst so manie & where so mootche is due, wyll doo, too your* Lordships owane consideration 20 I leaue; I humbly beeseetche your Lordship that sutes vppon pryuate affection & fauoure maye not preuayle so there as shall turne the generall that arre in seruyce heere too hard dryftes & no small hynderance of the seruyce{.}*

In thys sorte too receaue it, I dowght, ••* if it were 25 not as good too haue noane at all: pardon mee, good my Lord, ••* thowghe I bee sumwhat the earnestest in this cause for it tootchethe mee very neere soondrie wayes; first the solldior & Captayne they heeryng that treazure is appoynted hyther wyll neuer leaue mee, next contynua{ll} 30 occasion for seruyce wyll craue mooney, lastly myne owane pryuate can not withowte it bee mayntayned protestyng to God that withowte readie quoyne I put not one bitt of meate into my mouthe nor feede my horssies: waye these extremities I beeseetche 35 yowr Lordship & withall the not ouerhastines in her Maiestie too affourde ••* that supplie, which yet if yowr Lordship doo not quyckly now woorck for vs agayne I knowe not in the world what wee shall doo or how wee maye serue, for in trowthe this now 40 too bee receaued (if owre Threasurer enfourme aryght ) is noane oother then as good neuer a whytt as neuer the better. At this tyme I wyll trowble yowr Lordship with no oother matter expectyng further occasion of aduertissements eare twoo dayes bee ended; & so 45 commendyng humbly the rguarde of these owre lackes too yowr good Lordship I take leaue prayeng the Allmyghtie euer too keepe, gooerne & prossper yowr Lordship.

Dublin this xxvjth of August 1581.

Yowr Lordships moast assuredly 50
euer,

Arthur Grey

Note on hands

The address is in Spenser's usual secretary, here fairly cramped. The text is in Grey's usual italic hand, with his subscription and autograph signature.

* 7 ••] 'y^r' deleted.

* 20 yowr] 'y^r' inserted above the line, with a caret mark.

* 24 {•}] Damage to the manuscript along its edge has obscured the conclusion of this line, as also the final line on this side of the page.

* 25 ••] 'it' deleted.

* 27 ••] 'if' deleted.

* 37 ••] 'su' (?) deleted.
