

Palaeography East-West

23 May 2017

Faculty of Asian and Middle-Eastern Studies
Room 8&9

9.45	Paul Russell, Introduction
10.00	Máire Ní Mhaonaigh (ASNC) and Michael Rand (AMES), 'Manuscripts between languages: a global perspective'
10.45	Coffee break
11.00	Tessa Webber (History), 'Palaeographical analysis and digital humanities: the DigiPal framework and the challenge of cursive handwriting'
11.45	Anne McLaughlin (Parker Library), 'The Parker Library for students'
12.15	Myriah Williams (ASNC), 'Black Book of Carmarthen (Aberystwyth, NLW, Peniarth 1), fol. 40v'
12.45	Lunch
1.45	Paul Russell (ASNC), 'Welsh scribbles in the UL'
2.15	Jonathan Wright (ASNC), 'Defining the parameters of an inconsistent hand from Iceland, c. 1300'
2.45	Laura Moretti (AMES), 'The cursive hand in early-modern Japanese woodblock-printed books'
3.30	Close

If you wish to attend please fill in the form by clicking HERE.

The event is free but coffee/lunch will not be provided.
For any information please contact Dr Laura Moretti: lm571@cam.ac.uk.