

Application form.

Please return this form to Professor Anthony Bale by email (apb90@cam.ac.uk), with the subject line DIGITAL BURSARIES, by 5pm British Summer Time on 1 October 2025. Please be sure to pay attention to the word limits given for individual sections.

Personal details

1. Your name:
Forename(s), last name
2. Pronouns (optional):
3. Email address:
4. Phone number (including country code if not UK):
5. Nationality:
6. Main country of residence:

Your practice

7. How would you describe your artistic practice? [150 words max]
8. Please provide URL link(s) to your website or portfolio [up to 4 links; alternatively, you may upload up to 4 attachments via email alongside your application form and CV. By submitting this material you are indicating that it is your work and you hold the moral or intellectual property rights to the work, unless otherwise indicated]
9. Please tell us why you're applying for this Digital Bursary and how you can see your work engaging with the remit of the Medieval Ideas Creative Lab at Cambridge. [300 words max]
9. How did you hear about this opportunity?
10. Please attach a short CV of no more than 2 pages.
Thank you for applying for a Digital Bursary at the Medieval Ideas Creative Lab, University of Cambridge.

